DISSENSION WON'T BENEFIT JASPER

Jewels Have Makings of Championship Team and Talk of Changes Appears Foolish

TRENTON OUT IN FRONT

By WILLIAM S. DALLAS

ACCORDING to Manager Michael Rogers, of the Jasper basketball team, he is on the warpath.

Judging from the heated remarks of the up-to-date cage pilot several players and possibly more are likely to say good-bye to Kinnelon tonight after the team has been beaten at home.

Players have been signed and others will be signed to take their places if they fail to produce this evening. One of the new comers is a veteran center who is ready to play at once.

The sudden news that manager and players of the Jewels were not getting along has been denied and will do the team no good in the end.

In Newark, Nathan Friedman and Reonda, the club, are in a nitty gang of basketeers as is performing in the Eastern League. If Manager Rogers has the eastern center signed all that is necessary for Jasper to have a winner is to put said center in the cage tonight and he has the means to do his best.

The Jewels have been hamstrung all season, but George Rizzo has done his best and is improving, but a top notch pivot would have the team in front. The players have not been able to really get started, as they have received very few tips, and for any manager to tell them they must get the ball, regardless of whether the center gets it, is all right.

The Trenton Tigers, forced to the front last week by winning three straight and then going to Camden by half a game, Atlantic City has moved into the first division, and while it will not win the first-half pennant, can give the leaders plenty of trouble.

Kensington Telephone and Passon, Gottsch & Black are still undefeated in the Philadelphia Manufacturers' race. Telephone won a great one-point struggle over Colonial Ins. Mfg. and Passon, Gottsch & Black had to go to New Haven to defeat Metal Edge on Wednesday.

PLAYED FOUR TIE GAMES

WHEN McKinney made that 95-yard dash down the field for a touch-down which gave Catholic High the Catholic League championship, it marked the close of one of the most interesting seasons that an eleven representing the Purple and Gold has ever had for the last decade.

Eleven games were played during the season and in none of them did they come out on the wrong end of the count. Four touch-downs managed to touch, but it may be said that the Purple and Gold had enough margin of safety to offset the intrinsic points of the gridiron game, as they were Saturday afternoon, not one deadlock would have resulted.

Should Catholic put in a strong push to win the scholastic football championship of the city it would be justified. It was the only team in the city's senior school's season with a clean slate. And it defeated the best of them.

Salem High, Central, Salesianum, Monton, West Catholic, St. John's, St. John's Prep and Villanova Prep were the others to fall before Catholic. Roselle High, West Philadelphia, H. H. H. and Moorestown, all of them, like McKinney, earlier in the league, were the teams that obtained a deadlock with the Purple and Gold.
